Sir,

NARASIMHA (SRI) H: Treasury Deputy Collector--time to join duty at Mangalore on transfer from Coimbatore--Treated as joining time--requested.

1.Government Notification Rev. Department dated
2.Accountant General's G.I.R.II/623 dated 25.7.5

In Government Notification dated 22.5.53 I was posted Treasury Dy.Collector S.Kanara and I was not entitled to Travelling allowance a the transfer was at my own request I was relieved from Coimbatore treasury on 6.6.53 (Afternoon) and I reached Mangalore the very next day. When I went to join duty here on 8.6.53 I was informed by the Treasury Dy. Collector (Sri V.R.K.Ayyar) that the Collector had sent a letter to me dated 1.6.53 that I may join here on or after 12.6.53 on his return from casual leave, since Sri V.R.K. would be in charge till 12.6.53 during his absence from 8. to 12.6.53. I could therefore join duty only on 13.6.53. The Accountant General in his letter cited second, has observed that I am not entitled to pay and allowances for period 7.6.53 to 13.6.53 under note 2 to F.R.107(c) and that my absence may be not regularised under orders of the Gov

In this connection, I submit that I had not received the Collector's letter dated 1.6.53 till I left Coimbatore on the night of 6.6.53 or even subsequently and so I had no previous information about the Collector's directions when I came over to Mangalore and appeared at the District Office to take over charge on 8.6.53. In these circumstances I request that the delay in joining duty at Mangalore may be considered to have been duly authorised and the period from 7.6.53 to 13.6.53 may be treated as joining time.
